

Equity and Indigenous Health Award 2023

Criteria Checklist for Evaluation of Nomination

Name of initiative, project or program:

Year initiative was implemented:

Criteria	Score					Comments
1. Equity and Inclusion The Equity and Indigenous Health Award is presented to a program or initiative that best demonstrates the criteria based on Ontario Health's Equity, Inclusion, Diversity and Anti-Racism Framework. Does the initiative effectively address one or more of the criteria?	0	1	2	3	4
2. Reduction in health disparities Is there evidence that the initiative is reducing health disparities for patients, families, or providers.	0	1	2	3	4
3. Partnership Is there evidence of partnership with First Nations, Inuit, Métis and urban Indigenous communities and leadership, OR with Black, or other equity-deserving groups to identify, design, and deliver health services?	0	1	2	3	4
4. Data Does the initiative demonstrate use of equity data for planning, development, and evaluation related to equity or Indigenous health?	0	1	2	3	4
5. Sustainability Does the initiative demonstrate long-term sustainability? Are there tools and strategies to facilitate the sustainability of the initiative?	0	1	2	3	4

Criteria	Score					Comments
6. Opportunity for expansion Is there opportunity for the initiative to be expanded?	0	1	2	3	4
7. Overall rating of initiative Overall, how would you rate this initiative to improve health equity?	0	1	2	3	4
Final Comments:
Total Score (out of 28):          						